INTRODUCTION

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

OBJECTIVES

- The primary objective of this research is to increase levels of employee engagement within the TTC. This includes identifying specific aspects of the employee experience that require improvement in order to increase employee engagement moving forward.
- As this is the first year the TTC is conducting this research, objectives also include establishing a baseline of employee engagement to facilitate comparisons over time and across employee groups.
- This research will identify key drivers of employee engagement across the following eight aspects of the employee experience:

1. Job
2. Company
3. Manager/Supervisor
4. Team
5. Working Environment
6. Safety
7. Training and Development
8. Performance and Reward

- Additionally, this report examines these objectives as they relate specifically to the IT Services department.

METHODOLOGY

- Invitations to participate in the survey were issued to all permanent employees, both full or part time. Contract workers, temporary employees, students and co-ops were excluded from the survey, as were pensioners.
- The survey was completed online and via paper.
- Data were collected from October 27, 2014 to December 8, 2014.
- 13,242 surveys were sent directly to employees using home addresses or company email addresses provided by the TTC (2,617 via email and 10,625 paper surveys sent by regular mail).
- In most cases, email links to online survey were sent to staff employees while paper surveys were mailed to unionized employees. Employees requesting the survey in an alternate format to the one initially provided were accommodated.
- Each employee was assigned an individual access code by Malatest for the purpose of linking respondents to their correct group and department. This code served as login code to access the online survey and was pre-printed on return envelopes provided with mailed paper surveys.
- In total, 4,808 surveys were completed (2,447 online and 2,361 via paper) for an overall response rate of 36%.
- 198 surveys were completed by IT Services employees, for a response rate of 96%. This rate was higher than the overall rate for Corporate Services group (85%).
- Cost centres within the IT Services department that report to common managers have been combined into the groups shown on the following slide. This also allows for reporting on cost centres with a smaller sample base.

* Organization of departments reflect the organizational structure as of October 2014, when the survey was launched. Changes in organizational structure occurring since that time are not reflected.

 This cost centre is too small to report and it was not considered appropriate to combine with other cost centres. Results from this cost centre will not be reported separately.

† One completed survey was attached to Cost Centre 1429 – Client Services, which was not identified as belonging to any of the above groups.

REPORTING NOTES

- Most questions in the survey asked for level of agreement on a 1-10 scale.
 - For these questions, responses of 7-10 are classified as “Agree”, 5-6 as “Neutral”, and 1-4 as “Disagree”. Employees selecting “N/A” or not responding to the question were excluded.
 - Other questions are reported by each response option available.
- Some questions were not answered by enough employees to provide reliable data for some departments or employee categories.
 - Results in the form of percentages will be suppressed throughout this report if there were fewer than 30 valid responses (indicated by *).
 - Results in the form of mean scores will be suppressed throughout this report if there were fewer than 10 valid responses (indicated by **).
 - Planning, Resources & Administration grouping has fewer than 10 valid responses. Since this was a grouping suggested by the department, this grouping will displayed throughout the report, though all data will be suppressed.
 - Several other groupings each have fewer than 30 valid responses. For this reason no percentages will be shown for these groupings, which include: Department Head & Staff, Testing & Quality Assurance, Project Management, and IT Customer Services. Any results provided relating to these cost centre groupings should be interpreted with caution.
- Exact sample size may vary employee group/category or by individual question
 - In general, if the results for more than one question or more than one employee category are presented on the same slide, the sample size varies slightly by question.
 - It can be assumed that, unless otherwise stated, sample sizes include all employees who provided a valid response to the question. Refer to slide 6 for total sample by cost centre grouping.

Overall Employee Engagement score: 8.1.

Highest:	IT Cust. Serv.	8.6
Lowest:	Dpt. Head/Ent. Arch.	7.1

- To increase levels of employee engagement, the TTC should focus on improving employees' satisfaction with Your Company:
 - Your Company is an Area to Improve for IT Services.
 - To increase satisfaction with Your Company, results indicate that IT Services should emphasize relationship building between senior management and employees. This means:
 - Building trust by being open and honest (i.e., "Senior Managers communicate openly and honestly with employees" and "There is a good level of trust between Senior Management and employees").
 - Welcoming feedback (i.e., "TTC leadership welcomes all feedback, both positive and negative").
 - Another Area to Improve relates to information sharing. Specifically:
 - Sharing best practices effectively ("Best practices are shared effectively across the TTC")

HIGHLIGHTS (CONT'D)

- Your Job is an area that generates high levels of satisfaction and represents the strongest driver of employee engagement for IT Services, making this a key Area to Protect.
- The TTC should continue to increase satisfaction with Your Job by:
 - Exploring what motivates employees
 - Encouraging employees to use their skills & abilities
 - Giving employees more opportunities to make decisions
 - Ensuring that employees know how to improve customer service
- Working Environment is another key driver and an Area to Protect for IT Services.
- Specific areas that require improvement in order to increase employees' satisfaction with their Working Environment include:
 - How to demonstrate concern for employees' health & well-being; more specifically:
 - Caring about employees' mental health & emotional wellbeing (i.e., "The TTC cares about my mental health and emotional well-being").

TOP 5 AND BOTTOM 5 SCORES

- Across the entire survey, the attributes in the boxes below received the highest and lowest satisfaction ratings from TTC Employees. Each attribute is accompanied by the overall mean score (/10) for the attribute.
- All of the top 5 scores are attributes related to safety.
- Among the 5 lowest scoring attributes, three were associated with the module Your Company – referring to company leadership. The others were associated with Training and Development and Performance and Reward.

Top 5

1. I feel comfortable discussing safety issues at work (9.1)
2. I am strongly encouraged to report unsafe working conditions (9.0)
3. The protection of workers from occupational exposure to hazards is a high priority with management (8.9)
4. The TTC's management is willing to invest money and effort to improve the level of safety (8.8)
5. My manager/supervisor emphasizes safe practices while at work (8.8)

Bottom 5

1. People get things done both quickly and efficiently at the TTC (5.9)
2. Poor performance is not tolerated (6.0)
3. The way people are selected for jobs in the TTC is fair (6.0)
4. There is effective sharing of information across the TTC (6.1)
5. Best practices are shared effectively across the TTC (6.3)

OVERALL EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT SCORE

MEASURING EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

- Malatest typically uses a composite of different survey measures to define employee engagement. A composite is used rather than a single measure for the following reasons:
 - A composite because is more stable than a single variable. A single variable tends to respond more quickly to random fluctuations in the data and is more likely to show more variation over time.
 - The idea of employee engagement is complex and cannot be explained by a single measure. A composite which includes more than one measure is better able to explain the concept of employee engagement.
- Malatest typically selects three measures to include in the composite because including more than three measures can result in a composite that is very difficult to move over time (to move the composite, all measures included in the composite need to receive similarly high or low ratings). Three measures result in a composite that is stable without being immovable.
- Employee engagement can mean different things for different industries and for different organizations within the same industry. For this reason, Malatest does not pre-select the measures that will be included in the composite that represents employee engagement for a given organization. Instead, Malatest runs a series of tests to identify the ‘best’ composite for a specific organization. The best composite is the one that explains the most variance in Employee Engagement overall, and includes measures that generate the highest number of valid responses (indicating that these measures resonate with the largest proportion of TTC employees).
- Test results identified the composite including the following measures as best explaining the idea of employee engagement for the TTC: “I am satisfied with the TTC as an employer”; “I enjoy coming to work every day”; and “I see value in the work that I do”. Overall, across these three measures, the TTC’s mean Employee Engagement score is 7.8 on a 10 point scale (where “10” is the highest rating and “1” is the lowest). For IT Services, this score is 8.1.

OVERALL EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT SCORE

- Within the Employee Engagement survey:
 - Employee engagement uses a 1-10 scale.
 - The higher the score, the higher the engagement.

Composite of 3 measures:

- I am satisfied with the TTC as an employer
- I enjoy coming to work every day
- I see the value in the work that I do

Mean rating

OVERALL EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT SCORE

- The Employee Engagement score for Corporate Services is slightly higher than the score for all TTC employees, but very close to the score for employees of the 4 groups consisting mainly of staff employees, referred to in this report as “Staff Groups”, and the score for Corporate Services group.
- The Employee Engagement score is highest among employees in IT Customer Services.
- Levels of engagement are lowest among employees in Department Head/Enterprise Architecture. Note that no score is available for Planning Resources and Administration, as there are fewer than 10 valid responses in this grouping.

RATINGS ON ASPECTS OF EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- The following measures were included in the survey in order to assess overall satisfaction with each aspect of employee satisfaction with the TTC:
 - I am satisfied with the job I do at the TTC
 - I am satisfied with the leadership of the company
 - I am satisfied with my immediate manager/supervisor
 - I am satisfied with my relationship with my coworkers/colleagues at the TTC
 - I am satisfied with the work environment at the TTC
 - I feel safe when I am at work
 - I am satisfied with my training and development at the TTC
 - I am satisfied with the way the TTC recognizes and rewards employees
- Ratings were highest for “I feel safe when I am at work”. Ratings were lowest for “I am satisfied with the way the TTC recognizes and rewards employees” and “I am satisfied with my training and development at the TTC”. These results were consistent for most cost centre groupings, with the exception of Department Head/Enterprise Architecture. For this grouping, the highest score was for “I am satisfied with my relationship with my coworkers/colleagues at the TTC”, while the lowest score was for “I am satisfied with the work environment at the TTC”. There were a few other slight exceptions for some other groupings, but the general trend is consistent.

WHAT DRIVES EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT?

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

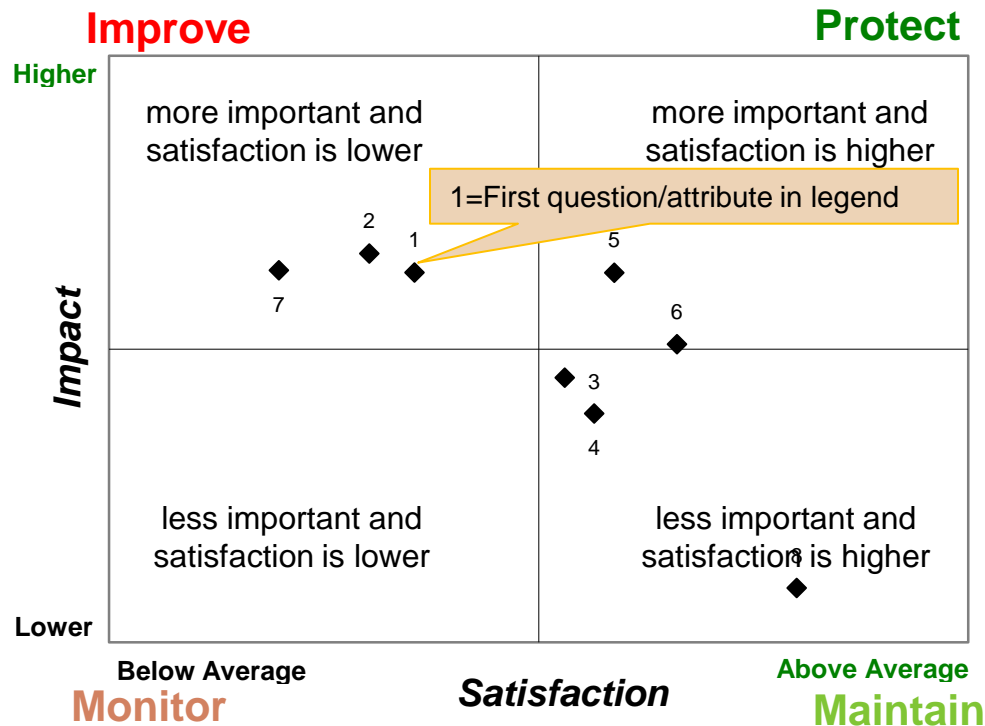

SECTION SUMMARY

- Each aspect of the employee experience can be thought of as a lever that will generate a greater or lesser degree of 'lift' in Employee Engagement overall. To determine which aspect of the employee experience will generate the most lift in Employee Engagement, Malatest conducted correlation analysis to assess the strength of the correlation between each aspect of the employee experience and Employee Engagement overall.
- Correlation analysis identified the following aspects of the employee experience as having the strongest correlation with Employee Engagement overall: “Your Job”, “Working Environment”, and “Your Company”. Focusing your efforts on increasing employee satisfaction with these aspects of the employee experience will generate the greatest amount of lift in Employee Engagement overall.
- Conversely, the following aspects of the employee experience were identified as having the least impact (i.e., the lowest correlation) on Employee Engagement: “Safety”, “Your Manager/Supervisor”, and “Your Team”. Focusing on increasing employee satisfaction with these aspects of the employee experience will not generate as much improvement in Employee Engagement as will increasing employees’ satisfaction with Your Job, Working Environment, and Your Company.
- “Opportunity Analysis” was then used to plot the correlation value for each aspect of the employee experience against employees’ satisfaction with that aspect of their experience. The next slide shows how to read the result of Opportunity Analysis.

SECTION SUMMARY

- Opportunity Analysis was conducted in order to identify factors that have the most significant impact on Employee Engagement (key drivers). More specifically, each aspect of Employee Engagement (identified in the prior section of this report) was first correlated with a composite of three overall rating questions; specifically:
 - I am satisfied with this company as an employer
 - I would recommend this company as a good place to work
 - I enjoy coming to work every day
- Results were then plotted against employees' satisfaction with each aspect of Employee Engagement agreement. The resulting quadrant chart ("Opportunity Analysis") identifies the key drivers of Employee Engagement. An example is provided below:

Composite:

- I am satisfied with the TTC as an employer
- I enjoy coming to work every day
- I see the value in the work that I do

1. First question/attribute
2. Second question/attribute
3. Third question/attribute
4. Fourth question/attribute
5. Fifth question/attribute
6. Sixth question/attribute
7. Seventh question/attribute
8. Eighth question/attribute

- Results of the Opportunity Analysis shown in this sub-section of the report are summarized below:
 - Areas to Improve (high relative impact; low relative performance):
 - Company
 - Areas to Protect (high relative impact; high relative performance):
 - Job
 - Working Environment
 - Areas to Monitor (low relative impact; low relative performance):
 - Performance/Reward
 - Training & Development
 - Manager/Supervisor
 - Areas to Maintain (low relative impact; high relative performance):
 - Safety
 - Team
- Opportunity Analysis was not conducted below the departmental level.

OVERALL ORGANIZATIONAL VIEWS OF IT SERVICES

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- The following measures were included in the survey in order to assess employees' overall satisfaction with the TTC:
 - I am satisfied with the TTC as an employer
 - I value what the TTC stands for
 - I am proud to tell people I work for the TTC
 - I would recommend the TTC as a good place to work
 - I can see myself developing a career at the TTC
 - I enjoy coming to work every day
 - I see the value in the work I do
 - I am inspired to do my best at work every day
 - I intend to stay with the TTC for at least the next 5 years
 - I feel a sense of commitment to the TTC
- Ratings were highest for the following measures: “I value what the TTC stands for”; “I intend to stay with the TTC for at least the next 5 years”; and “I feel a sense of commitment to the TTC”. Ratings were lowest for “I enjoy coming to work every day” and “I can see myself developing a career at the TTC”. As scores for most of these measures were relatively close together, there is substantial variability across cost centre groupings, though the lowest rated measures were typically among the lowest for most groupings.
- Mean scores across most measures were generally highest for Testing & Quality Assurance, IT Customer Services, and Portfolio Management, though there was substantial variability at the top end. Most scores were lowest for Department Head/Enterprise Architecture.

AREA TO PROTECT: YOUR JOB

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- Opportunity Analysis identifies “Your Job” as having the most impact on Employee Engagement overall and is an area with which IT Services employees are, for the most part, satisfied, making this an Area to Protect.
- Employee satisfaction with the job they do is generally highest for Portfolio Management, and generally lowest for Department Head/Enterprise Architecture and Technical & Operations (with some exceptions).
- Across the specific aspects of the job, ratings were highest for, “I often look for ways to make improvements in how things are done”. Ratings were lowest for, “I have the proper equipment/tools to do my job well”, “I am given the freedom to make decisions in my job”, and “I feel motivated in my job.” These results were generally consistent for most cost centre groupings, with the exception of Project Management, where feeling able to put customers first received the lowest rating, while motivation and having the right equipment were not among the lowest scores for this grouping.
- To maintain high levels of employee satisfaction with Your Job, Opportunity Analysis identifies the following key Areas to Improve:
 - I feel motivated in my job
 - My work enables me to use my skills and abilities
 - I am given the freedom to make decisions in my job
 - I feel well informed about how to improve customer service
- One key Area to Protect was identified: “In my job, I feel able to put customers first”.

AREA TO PROTECT: YOUR WORKING ENVIRONMENT

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- Opportunity Analysis identifies “Your Working Environment” as second most impactful on Employee Engagement and as an area in which TTC employees are satisfied relative to other areas; in other words, this is an Area to Protect.
- Mean scores across most specific aspects of Working Environment were generally highest for Testing & Quality Assurance and Portfolio Management (with some exceptions), and generally lowest for Department Head/Enterprise Architecture.
- Across the specific aspects of Working Environment, ratings were highest for, “The hours I work are reasonable”. Ratings were lowest for “I am satisfied with my work/office space and facilities” followed by “The TTC cares about my mental health and emotional well-being”. While these results were mostly consistent across cost centre groupings, there was some variability, especially for a few cost centres. Department head/Enterprise Architecture, gave the highest rating to “The TTC is committed to diversity and inclusiveness”, while encouraging employees to maintain a healthy work-life balance rated lower than concern for mental health and well-being. Meanwhile, for Testing & Quality Assurance, commitment to diversity was scored the lowest of all the attributes.
- To continue improving employee satisfaction with Your Working Environment, Opportunity Analysis identifies the following key Area to Improve:
 - The TTC cares about my mental health and emotional well-being
- In addition to these improvements, the following are identified as key Areas to Protect:
 - The TTC encourages employees to maintain a healthy work-life balance
 - I feel I belong at the TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- Stress at Work
- 13% of employees indicated that they experience “frequent” stress at work, and an additional 49% experience stress at work “sometimes”.
- While not all cost centre groupings have sufficient sample to make comparisons, Employees in the Technical & Operations cost centres reported more frequent stress than employees in the Portfolio Management cost centres. While the difference in proportions reporting “frequent” stress was small, a larger proportion of Technical & Operations employees reported “sometimes” experiencing stress than was the case for Portfolio Management.
- Discrimination/Harassment
- 13% of IT Services employees reported experiencing discrimination or harassment by another TTC employee in the past 12 months.
- Technical & Operations employees were more likely to have experienced discrimination (14%) compared to Portfolio Management (3%).
- Employees most frequently reported discrimination based on personal harassment, followed by discrimination based on race.
- Was it Reported?
- As only a minority reported experiencing any discrimination, results cannot be reliably reported for this department.

SECTION SUMMARY

- Were Employees Satisfied with How it was Handled?
- Among those who reported the incident, satisfaction scores related to the manner in which the incident was handled were very low.
- Abuse by Customers
- Only 5% of IT Services employees reported that they had been verbally abused by customers in the past 12 months, the lowest incidence rate reported among departments in Corporate Services. Among the larger cost centre groupings, the highest incidence of verbal abuse was observed for Technical & Operations (6%), while no Portfolio Management employees reported verbal abuse by customers.
- Only 1% of IT Services employees reported that they had experienced physical abuse by customers.

AREA TO IMPROVE: YOUR COMPANY

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- Opportunity Analysis identifies “Your Company” as third most impactful on Employee Engagement and as an area in which Corporate Services employees are relatively less satisfied, making this an Area to Improve.
- Mean satisfaction ratings across most specific aspects of Your Company are generally highest for IT Customer Services and Portfolio Management, and lowest for Department Head/Enterprise Architecture, followed by Project Management.
- Across the specific aspects of Your Company, satisfaction ratings are highest for, “I feel that the TTC’s vision to be ‘A transit system that makes Toronto proud’ is realistic and achievable”, “The TTC puts customers first”, and “I am proud and passionate about the TTC”. Ratings were lowest for, “People get things done both quickly and efficiently at the TTC” and “There is effective sharing of information across the TTC.” There are a few differences among cost centre groupings. For some groupings, particularly the smaller ones, good collaboration between different parts of the TTC rated among the lowest scores. For Department Head/Enterprise Architecture, the lowest score was for “Best practices are shared effectively across the TTC”.
- To improve employee satisfaction with Your Company, Opportunity Analysis identifies several influential Areas to Improve, primarily related to trust and communication:
 - There is a good level of trust between Senior Management and employees
 - Senior Managers communicate openly and honestly with employees
 - TTC leadership welcomes all feedback, both positive and negative
 - Best practices are shared effectively across the TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- In addition to these Areas to Improve, the following areas were identified as key Areas to Protect:
 - I feel confident that TTC leadership is making the right decisions for the company's future success
 - The TTC values its staff's time
 - I feel sufficiently well informed about what is happening in the TTC
- Speaking Highly of the TTC
- A majority (62%) of IT Services employees indicated that would “always” speak highly of the TTC, while most of the remainder indicated that they would “sometimes” speak highly of the TTC.
- Portfolio Management is slightly more likely to “always” speak highly of the TTC, compared to Technical & Operations.
- Change in Experience Working for the TTC
- 47% of IT Services employees feel that working for the TTC has improved over the past 12 months, compared to only 10% who feel it has gotten worse.
- Employees in the Technical & Operations cost centres were most likely to express that working for the TTC has gotten worse over the past 12 months (16%), compared to Portfolio Management (7%). Only small differences were seen in the proportions who felt the TTC has improved.

SECTION SUMMARY

- Among IT Services employees who indicated that working for the TTC has gotten better in the past 12 months, the main reasons traced to the arrival of new managers or coworkers, followed by improvements in communication, increased focus on customer service, and improvements to TTC facilities, among several other areas.
- There were not sufficient IT Services employees indicating that working for the TTC has gotten worse to be able to identify the most common reasons for this impression.

AREA TO MONITOR: PERFORMANCE AND REWARD

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- Although “Performance and Reward” is not the most influential aspect of the employee experience, Opportunity Analysis still identifies it as having a moderate impact on Employee Engagement and as an area in which IT Services employees are relatively less satisfied. In other words, it is an Area to Monitor.
- Employee satisfaction with the way the TTC recognizes and rewards employees is highest for Portfolio Management and IT Customer Services, and generally lowest for Department Head/Enterprise Architecture.
- Across the specific aspects of Performance and Reward, ratings were highest for, “The TTC offers good job security”, followed by “I am satisfied with my pay and benefits, given the job I do”. Ratings were lowest for, “Poor performance is not tolerated”, followed by “At the TTC, the recognition and rewards are meaningful”. These results were consistent for most cost centre groupings, though meaningful recognition may score lower than not tolerating poor performance for some groupings.
- To improve employee satisfaction with Performance and Reward, Opportunity Analysis identifies the following key areas on which to focus improvements:
 - At the TTC, the recognition and / or rewards are meaningful
 - I am recognized for excellent performance
 - I am satisfied with the recognition I receive from my manager
 - I have the opportunity to progress within the company

AREA TO MONITOR: TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- While not among the most influential aspects of the employee experience, Opportunity Analysis still identifies “Training and Development” as having a moderate impact on Employee Engagement and as an area in which IT Services employees are relatively less satisfied, making this an Area to Monitor.
- Employee satisfaction with their training and development is generally highest for Department Head/Enterprise Architecture, and lowest for Technical & Operations.
- Across the specific aspects of Training and Development, ratings were highest for, “My on-boarding/induction experience was positive”. Ratings were lowest for, “The way people are selected for jobs in the TTC is fair”, followed by “I have a clear, agreed, personal development plan, which I have agreed to with my manager/supervisor”. These results were mostly consistent across cost centre groupings, with some exceptions. For several groupings, another aspect of Training and Development was rated higher than the on-boarding experience, with the highest scoring measure varying by individual grouping. For Testing & Quality Assurance, satisfaction with career development opportunities was rated lower than having the agreed personal development plan.
- To improve employee satisfaction with Training and Development, Opportunity Analysis identifies the following key areas on which to focus improvements:
 - I am satisfied with the career development opportunities available to me
 - I have a clear, agreed, personal development plan, which I have agreed to with my manager/supervisor
 - I am satisfied with the support I receive on my personal development
- In addition to these improvements, the following areas is identified as a key Area to Protect:

AREA TO MAINTAIN: YOUR TEAM

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- While not among the most influential aspects of the employee experience, Opportunity Analysis still identifies “Your Team” as having a moderate impact on Employee Engagement and is an area in which IT Services employees are relatively satisfied, making this an Area to Maintain.
- Employee satisfaction with their colleagues or co-workers is highest for Portfolio Management, followed by Department Head/Enterprise Architecture, and lowest for Technical & Operations, followed by Testing & Quality Assurance.
- Across the specific qualities of Your Team, ratings were close together for most attributes though slightly higher for, “Members of my team treat each other with respect”. Ratings were lowest for, “I feel that workload is fairly distributed on my team”, followed by “There is good morale on my team”. These results were consistent for most cost centre groupings.
- To maintain employee satisfaction with Your Team, Opportunity Analysis identifies the following key Areas to Protect:
 - My team works well together
 - I feel supported by my fellow team members
 - My team members do quality work

SECTION SUMMARY

Regular Team Meetings

- 77% of employees indicate they have regular team meetings.
- These proportions vary greatly by cost centre grouping. Among the two larger groupings, Portfolio Management had the highest proportion of employees (86%) to report meeting regularly, while Technical & Operations had a lower proportion of employees indicating they have regular meetings (45%).
- Among employees who have regular meetings, most indicated they were held frequently enough. Since only Portfolio Management had more than 30 employees reporting regular team meetings, comparison by cost centre grouping is not possible.
- Most employees who have regular meetings agree they are useful. There is not a large variation by group, though usefulness of meetings was scored highest by Technical & Operations and lowest by Department Head/Enterprise Architecture, followed by Testing & Quality Assurance.

AREA TO MONITOR: YOUR MANAGER/SUPERVISOR

Produced by Malatest on
behalf of TTC

SECTION SUMMARY

- While not among the most influential aspects of the employee experience, Opportunity Analysis still identifies “Your Manager/Supervisor” as having a moderate impact on Employee Engagement and is an area in which IT Services employees are relatively less satisfied, making this an Area to Monitor.
- Employee satisfaction with their immediate manager or supervisor is generally somewhat higher for Portfolio Management and Department Head/Enterprise Architecture, and generally lower for Technical & Operations, Testing & Quality Assurance, and Project Management.
- Across the specific qualities of Your Manager/Supervisor, ratings were highest for, “I get help and support from my manager/supervisor when I need it”, and “My manager/supervisor treats me fairly”. Several individual aspects of Your Manager/Supervisor had scores very close to the lowest score. Most of these attributes related to feedback and involvement. As many of these scores are tightly grouped, scores are somewhat variable across cost centre groupings.
- To improve employee satisfaction with their manager/supervisor, Opportunity Analysis identifies the following key areas on which to focus improvements:
 - My manager/supervisor leads by example
 - My manager/supervisor manages people well
 - My manager/supervisor is open to constructive feedback from staff and others
 - I am satisfied with the way I am managed
 - My manager/supervisor tells me why decisions have been made

SECTION SUMMARY

- In addition to these improvements, the following areas are key Areas to Protect:
 - My manager/supervisor takes responsibility when problems arise
 - I have confidence in my manager's/supervisor's skills and abilities
 - I get help and support from my manager/supervisor when I need it
